Dear Hiring Manager,

I am interested in applying to be a storyboard artist for the creative production of Animation. This Job would give me the ability to show my work of art in animation.

I have worked on digital animation and storyboards. Since I have been interested in the world of animation One of my best abilities are poses which are key when storyboarding and providing backgrounds, lighting, and script. As far as art styles, I have the ability to draw in any style. Teamwork is key and I love the ability to bring my work and personality to the team. I have a broad knowledge of technology and software of Microsoft, Adobe, and Toon Boom/Storyboard Pro.

I would be grateful to work with this company in the future. It would give the opportunity to bring new ideas. Thank you for your consideration; I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Ivan Lopez
